Midwest Baseball Academy's Spring Training 2008

is a unique concept that provides young players with advanced hitting and pitching training programs, instruction by the area's top high school and college coaches, and fantastic indoor facilities.

- ◆ Sessions for grades 1 through 12 include six weeks of instruction for only $99.
- ◆ A national baseball training program operated locally by Site Director Brendan Eygabroat, Head Coach, UMass-Boston.
- ◆ With a player-coach ratio of 6 to 1, each player gets plenty of individual attention in a small-group atmosphere. In addition to unbeatable instruction by the area's best high school and college coaches, players get a preseason tune-up that helps them enter team practice in mid-season form. With numerous age-specific sessions, instruction is specially tailored for each ability level. Overall, it's the type of intense, professional instruction young players just can't get in a summer league.
- ◆ So, forget about the weather. What better way to get a jump on the upcoming season than a six-week Spring Training experience, featuring instruction from some of the area's best coaches in a fantastic indoor facility?
