ECAC East Coaches' Poll. UMass Boston fell, 3-2, scoring its most goals vs. the Hawks in school history. Senior forward Melissa Belmonte (South Boston, MA) tied the contest at 2-2 for the Beacons after picking up a loose puck in front of the net and putting it between the pipes for her second tally of the season with an assist from junior forward Katherine Wall (Arlington, MA) and junior defenseman Rose Devlin (Quincy, MA) at 8:25 of the second stanza. Saint Anselm took the lead for good, however, scoring with 5:59 left to play in the game. Senior forward Melissa Wigmore (Duxbury, MA) opened the scoring for UMass Boston when she picked up her own rebound and found the back of the net for her first goal of the season with an assist from Belmonte at 13:04 of the first period for a 1-0 edge. The Hawks came back with two unanswered goals before the Beacons tied it at 2-2. Sophomore goaltender Jessica Sams (Bellingham, MA) stopped a career-high 27 shots on the night for UMass Boston.

The Beacons looked to rebound the following day, but fell to New England College, 3-1. The Pilgrims opened the scoring at 2:52 of the opening period for a 1-0 edge, but UMass Boston matched the score, on the power play, when Wigmore blasted a shot from the top of the circles that found the back of the net for her second goal of the campaign at 13:53 of the first period to make it 1-1. New England College netted the final two goals of the day to hold on for the win. Freshman goalie Amanda Bourque (Cranston, RI) turned away 23 shots for the Beacons.
